† THE ORDER OF WORSHIP †

Worship Preparation: ..... Psalm 30, TLH p. 129 f.

Hymn: ..... TLH 246: Holy, Holy, Holy

Liturgy: ..... TLH, p. 5 ff. (Also available on laminated sheet in pew)

Introit (followed by Gloria Patri, The Kyrie): ..... TLH, pp. 6-7

P: The Lord is my light and salvation — whom shall I fear?

C: The Lord is the strength of my life — of whom shall I be afraid?

P: Do not hide Your face from me,

C: Do not turn Your servant away in anger;

P: You have been my helper.

C: Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Savior. Glory be to God!

Gloria in Excelsis: ..... TLH 244, st. 1,4

1. Glory be to God the Father, Glory be to God the Son,
Glory be to God the Spirit: Great Jehovah, Three in One!
Glory, glory, While eternal ages run!

4. Glory, blessing, praise eternal! Thus the choir of angels sings;
Honor, riches, pow'r, dominion! Thus its praise creation brings.
Glory, glory, Glory to the King of kings!

First Reading: ..... 2 Corinthians 8:1-14

Gradual:

P: Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise;

C: His greatness no one can fathom.

P: I will meditate on Your wonderful works,

C: And I will proclaim Your great deeds.

P: Alleluia. Alleluia. Submit to one another ...

C: Out of reverence for Christ. Alleluia.

Second Reading: ..... Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

Roger Ochsner

Secretary, Grace Lutheran Church

2010 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Church of the Lutheran Confession (CLC). From the constituent synods of the Synodical Conference -- the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) [1850], the Evangelical Lutheran Synod (ELS) [1918], and the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LC-MS) [1847]—a new confessional Lutheran church not associated with the Synodical Conference was born. In this anniversary celebration we recognize and acknowledge the Lord of the Church Who by His grace gave birth to this new church body.

Already in the 1930's, doctrinal differences began to appear within the Synodical Conference. Differences between the principal bodies, the WELS and the LC-MS, increased through the '40's, and became even more intense in the '50's (the ELS identified with the WELS).

The WELS recognized that the LC-MS (in the WELS own words) was guilty of causing divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which we have learned from Holy Scripture. This indictment was not reached hastily or lightly, but with regret and heavy heart. Scripture teaches that when the indictment of false doctrine has been made, obedience to the Word and love for the Lord and for souls calls for action-- "avoid them" (Romans 16:17-18). Nevertheless, in spite of its indictment of the LC-MS, the WELS could not muster the strength or will to follow through, and subsequently it attempted to justify its inaction. Manifest divisions that had arisen within the WELS relative to biblical fellowship principles and their application to the LC-MS intensified.

For some time, many in the WELS who were disturbed by the synod's developing new fellowship principles had been meeting in free conferences and other forums to study and to encourage the Synod to follow the proper course. Overtures were made to WELS conventions in the 50's, encouraging the synod to act. It came to a head in 1959 when the WELS officially adopted an unscriptural course of action. Concerned pastors and lay members of the WELS—as well as some from the ELS and LC-MS—were compelled by God's Word and conscience to separate from their respective fellowships. Like-minded confessors gathered at Trinity Lutheran Church, Watertown, South Dakota, in August of 1960. The beginning of the CLC is dated from this constituting convention.

During this anniversary year beginning this July and culminating at the 2010 CLC convention, we will be remembering God's grace in preserving us for fifty years as a confessional Lutheran Church. From the beginning it was and remains "our single purpose to be a Christian church that proclaims the saving gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the Bible (CLC Statement of Faith and Purpose)."
