
2 Samuel Chapter 11

1. David's Idleness and Temptation (vv. 1–5)

1. The chapter begins by noting that it was the time when kings normally go out to _____, but David remained in _____.
2. David's sin began when he _____ from his rooftop and did not turn away.
3. Bath-sheba is identified as the wife of _____, making David's actions a clear violation of God's law.
4. When Bath-sheba became pregnant, David chose _____ instead of repentance.
5. Temptation often gains strength during times of _____ and lack of responsibility.

2. David's Attempted Cover-Up (vv. 6–13)

6. David brought _____ home from battle in order to hide his own sin.
7. Uriah refused to go home because the ark, Israel, and Judah were _____.
8. Uriah's faithfulness stands in sharp contrast to David's _____.
9. Even after making Uriah drunk, David's plan still _____.
10. Trying to hide sin often leads to _____ sin rather than freedom.

3. David's Descent into Murder (vv. 14–27)

11. David ordered Joab to place Uriah in the _____ of the battle.
12. Uriah carried his own _____, showing David's deep moral collapse.
13. Uriah's death affected not only him, but also _____ soldiers.
14. After the mourning period, David took Bath-sheba as his _____.
15. Although David believed the matter was finished, the Lord _____ everything.

4. Personal Reflection

16. David's story reminds us that even believers are vulnerable to _____ sin.
17. One warning sign I notice in my own life when I am spiritually drifting is _____.
18. God calls me not to hide my sin, but to _____ and trust His mercy.
19. This chapter prepares us for repentance and forgiveness through _____, the greater Son of David.

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." (Psalm 51:10)
