Sermon: 2 Corinthians 5:1-10

¹ For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. ² For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, ³ if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked.

⁴ For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life.

⁵ Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. ⁶ So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. ⁷ For we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸ We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. ⁹ Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. (NKJVTM)

A blessed Father's Day to our fathers ...

THE IMPORTANCE OF FATHERS (Abridged from the "Lutheran Spokesman," June 1996)

Ephesians 6:4 And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

I complained to my wife that I couldn't find any Father's Day cards that I liked. Most of them were overly sentimental and gushy, sounding too much like a son's or daughter's desperate attempts to make up for a year's (or more) inattention. They didn't do a good job of expressing the gratitude of a son for a Christian father and for the blessings that God gives children through their fathers. To find the words to express such things the best place to begin is the Bible.

Scripture gives fathers the primary responsibility for discipline in the home, but also much more than that. Fathers are to apply discipline as the spiritual leader in the home. They are to give that correction and admonition (or instruction) that is of the Lord, that is found in the Word. This includes especially instruction in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Christian father teaches right and wrong of course, but he especially teaches, by word and example, the forgiveness of God in Christ.

You fathers then should understand the importance of your place in the home and in the lives of your children. Yours is a God-given role, an essential part of God's design for the family. No matter how important the work you do outside the home, raising your children is one of the most significant things you will do with your life.

Comments:

- General Fund offerings in April were $59,894.
- The General Fund disbursements were $82,429 leaving a balance of $352.
- ILC is underspent $37,917 year-to-date and has a balance of $75,848.
- A large gift to the ILC Building project was received and has been used to make a payment thereby reducing the mortgage balance to $1,370,001.
- May MDF expenditures were $81,067, major items included $17,275 for outreach, $21,083 for rice support, $7,500 for church buildings, and $21,000 for disaster relief.
- The Student Aid fund balance at the end of the school term is a negative $12,896 largely because of lower investment returns than had been estimated.
- The siding on the Academic Center has shown cracks because of deficient material and last month a portion of the settlement payment from the company that provided the siding was incorrectly included in the IIF. This has been removed from the IIF and will be include in the ILC Building when the rest of the settlement has been received.
