 Thou leadest us like Joseph, With Thee we have no fear.

<sup>1</sup> The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. <sup>2</sup> As it is written in the Prophets<sup>1</sup>: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, Who will prepare Your way before You."<sup>3</sup> <sup>3</sup> "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the LORD; Make His paths straight!'" <sup>4</sup> John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. <sup>5</sup> Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup> Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup> And he preached, saying, "There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. <sup>8</sup> "I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (NKJV<sup>TM</sup>)

The highlight of the music department will be the Christmas concert at Messiah Lutheran Church in Eau Claire on Fri., Dec. 16, 7:30 pm. This will include the flute choir, band, mass choir, and tour choir. The choir portion of the event is considered a sacred worship service as the students sing the Christmas Gospel message. This is always a spiritually edifying concert to help one focus, even in the midst of the busy holiday season, on the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. This concert ends the busy Finals Week for the students as they conclude their first semester of the academic year with their various tests and projects. We pray the students will safely arrive at their homes in order to enjoy Christmas break with their families. The students resume classes on Jan. 9.

THE LORD, OUR STRONG TOWER

A prominent New York Times Op-ed writer opined <sup>(11/17/2015)</sup>: "Terrorists won't destroy civilization, but global warming could." On the same day an on-line article carried the headline: "Humanity's future in the balance at UN Climate Summit."

With the first we agree in part. Terrorists will not destroy civilization. The evil of deluded terrorists be they Islamic terrorists or any other kind threaten the peace of society. They cause untold fear and harm, pain and anguish, and frequently death. As children of God who have the ear of God <sup>(1 John 5:14)</sup> we pray that the Lord will stay the evil of such, even as we pray that He will lead them to see the evil of their ways and lead them to repentance. For all their evil, terrorists will not destroy civilization. At the end of time the Lord God will exercise judgment. Anyone whose name is not found written in the Book of Life will be cast into the fire. End of civilization on earth!

Neither climate change nor the alleged global warming which has become a religion to those who fear-monger with it will destroy civilization or be the end of humanity. At the day of judgment when the Lord comes to take His children home according to His promise, humanity on the earth will end. Until then, the Lord who created the earth and seas and all that is in them will look after His creation, as well as after humans living on the earth.

We are living in the time described by Scripture through the apostle Paul. He called them perilous times. You will find his description of these times in the 3rd chapter of his last epistle written to Timothy.

"Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12). Yet, as difficult as the times are, the Lord uses them as a reminder to us to keep our focus on the heavenly home, purchased and won for us not with gold or silver, but with His holy precious blood and His innocent suffering and death, and guaranteed to us by His resurrection. The Lord also uses them as a daily call to repentance to us, and a like call to those who still reject Him. As we endure them we maintain our sanity by virtue of the promise of our Lord by whose grace we look for "a better, that is, a heavenly country" <sup>(Hebrews 11:16)</sup>.

As Christians living on the earth and subject to the same forces and circumstances that affect all regardless of race, religion, or national origin, we do care about the earth upon which the Lord has placed us. We are here to tend and care for it; we are here to enjoy it and not abuse it. But we have the assurance of faith through the promise of the Lord Who created it that it will endure until such time as He determines to end it. We have the promise that they whose god is no greater than themselves do not accept. Our Lord said: "While the earth remains, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, winter and summer, and day and night shall not cease" <sup>(Genesis 8:22)</sup>.

Even though they create havoc, heart-ache, pain, suffering, and all manner of discomfort, neither will the wickedness of men, nor the might of armies, nor the selfishness of governments end civilization or the world. They may be the catalyst that moves the Lord to end it for the sake of His Church, but He shall come as a thief in the night <sup>(1 Thessalonians 5:2, 2 Peter 3:10)</sup> to end what is, and create a new heaven and a new earth in which dwells righteousness <sup>(2 Peter 3:13, Revelation 21: 1-8)</sup>.

The perspective of the waiting child of God is therefore different from that of those whose life is earth bound, whose god is self, and whose hope will die with them.

Christians are not naive to the realities of life. But our perspective is a reflection of that which Paul spoke, saying, "If God is for us, who can be against us" <sup>(Romans 8:31)</sup>? God has given us all things in Christ; He has justified us; He has saved us from condemnation, and makes intercession for us <sup>(Romans 8:32-34)</sup>. "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? ... In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him Who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any created thing shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" <sup>(Romans 8:35-39)</sup>. Confident in God's love, Paul said and to this every Christ-believer can subscribe, "For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us" <sup>(Romans 8:18)</sup>.

The Lord whose birth we celebrate each Christmas, and whose victorious advent in the clouds of heaven we await says, "Surely I am coming quickly" to which John in exile on Patmos responded, "Amen, Even so, come, Lord Jesus" <sup>(Revelation 22:20)</sup>.

The atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ is the light that shines in the darkness of this gloomy world; the promise of our Savior is the quiet voice that speaks more loudly to our heart than the vain and loud voices that shout in the dark, and whistle by the cemetery!

Thankful praise to our Lord in whose name the righteous find safety <sup>(Proverbs 18:10)</sup> and Who declares: "Whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" <sup>(Romans 10:13)</sup>.

This is our perspective. This is our faith. This is our hope.
