<sup>5</sup> Thus says the LORD: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man And makes flesh his strength, Whose heart departs from the LORD. <sup>6</sup> For he shall be like a shrub in the desert, And shall not see when good comes, But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, In a salt land which is not inhabited. <sup>7</sup> "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, And whose hope is the LORD. <sup>8</sup> For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, Which spreads out its roots by the river, And will not fear when heat comes; But its leaf will be green, And will not be anxious in the year of drought, Nor will cease from yielding fruit. <sup>9</sup> "The heart is deceitful above all things, And desperately wicked; Who can know it? <sup>10</sup> I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, Even to give every man according to his ways, According to the fruit of his doings." (NKJV<sup>TM</sup>)

President's Message

Aren't we done yet? Hundreds of millions of people around the world have been vaccinated. Millions more have been infected and recovered. Yet the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel reported last week that new cases of COVID in the community have been surging with no end in sight. Even more discouraging is the prediction by some medical experts that we may never really be "done" with COVID. Instead, it may lie dormant at certain times, but then come roaring back like the seasonal flu outbreaks. New vaccines and booster shots may become a way of life indefinitely.

"Aren't we done yet?" could well be the Christian's refrain in response to all the evil in the world. There is no end in sight to outbreaks of sin in all kinds of variants: immorality, greediness, dishonesty, abuse, and violence. Jesus tells us there will be wars and rumors of wars until the end of time. We all struggle with sin in ourselves. "For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do" (Romans 7:15).

We aren't done yet, and that's why Isaiah urges, "Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way; say to those with fearful hearts, 'Be strong, do not fear; your God will come'" (Isaiah 35:3-4). Paul wrote the young pastor Timothy, "Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses" (1 Timothy 6:12).

The struggle continues, but it is not cause for discouragement, because the outcome is not in doubt. The decisive victory has already been won. Our Lord came to earth and fought the battle for all people. He passed every test and beat back the worst of Satan's temptations. Jesus crushed the devil's power by willingly laying down His own holy life. We are not done with our work as Jesus' followers, but without a doubt, we are on the winning side!

The harvest fields are ripe and ready. "Now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). Each day brings us twenty-four hours closer to the time when all work will finally be done and the harvest completed. May love for the Lord move us to make the most of every minute!

When the organ is delivered the balance will be due and will be paid for with funds in the organ fund. Any additional funds that are needed will be borrowed from the projects undesignated fund. Dale plans to present this plan at the October voters meeting.

CLC E-Devotion – October 15, 2020

1 John 1:9 (NIV84) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

The Tricky Heart

When was the last time you were wrong? If you can't remember, you're in need of something a bit more stout than this devotion.

You might have in mind a person or two in need of such, but you also know why it can be hard to admit. The pain and regret of times you remember all too well-and can't forget-can sting so fierce, denial might be a tempting option. And however trying it is to dig down deep, the Scriptures teach we can never know the full depth: "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked ... Who can know it?" (Jeremiah 17:9).

I've been wrong more times than I think? A harsh truth the Scriptures reveal for your eternal good. That lest we waltz the embarrassing broad road of the emperor in his new clothes, we turn now to the LORD who knows all: "I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind" (Jeremiah 17:10).

And find in the God who knows you better than you could ever know yourself infinite mercy and grace. Our first father Adam was in need of something rather stout. Naked, hiding, blaming, and denying, he received thorns and thistles, blood and sweat, a path to the grave. Only, though, that he might no longer trust his deceitful heart but the revealed wisdom of God: "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel" (Genesis 3:15).

The God who wakes us up out of our delusions the same, to reveal His saving truth: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

If it stings to look in the heart, look to Him instead. And you'll find in His life-giving Word that there's no better answer to having been wrong than the peace that He is always right: "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope is the LORD" (Jeremiah 17:7).
